

“Politicians may not
like straight talk,
but I do.”

When it comes to the future of Social Security, you've earned a say.

Join AARP Virginia, the AARP Blacksburg Chapter and the Virginia Tech Center for Gerontology on September 24 for an inter-generational conversation about the future of Social Security. Learn about the options being proposed in Washington and on the campaign trail -- the pros and cons -- without the political jargon and spin. Voice your opinion about the proposals being considered.

Monday, September 24

5:30-7 p.m.
Fralin Life Science Institute
Virginia Tech
360 West Campus Drive
Blacksburg, VA

Refreshments will be served.
